

ATTEMPT TO BREAK BAYLOR SURVEY FAILS

Measure Defeated in House By Vote of Thirt-five to Thirty four.

PROBABLY ENDS FIGHT FOR PRESENT

Registered Bill Was Designed to Straighten Oyster Ground Lines
Along Shore of Warwick County on James River—Accomac and Gloucester Men Made Winning Fight.

A special dispatch from Richmond to The Daily Press last night said: "The only fight launched today was when the bill to straighten the line of the James river along Warwick county, and thus take 2,000 acres from the Baylor survey was called up."

The measure was defeated by a vote of 35 to 34, and John R. Rew, of Accomac, and J. N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, who have fought the bill throughout the session, were responsible for the result.

This probably means that all chance of breaking the Baylor survey during this session of the legislature is at an end, although the close vote indicates that the strength of those who have been opposing the movement for years is weakening. The local Chamber of Commerce is on record as favoring a change in the survey so as to straighten out the lines. It is claimed that the lines are so crooked now that it is almost impossible for the oyster police boats to operate successfully against the pirates.

ALLEGED CRAP GAMES RAIDED BY POLICEMEN

Place Over Relaisfield's Saloon and One on Twenty-fourth Street Unexpectedly Visited.

Two alleged gambling joints in Rocketts were raided last night by Patrolman A. A. Padgett and Edward Barish. The first place visited was over A. Relaisfield's saloon, Jefferson avenue and Twenty-first street. Six negroes were found in the place and it is alleged that they were engaged in a game of craps. The negroes were: Cary Moore, J. H. Coleman, Sam Leonard, Rastus Moore, Thomas Crawford and Noah Davis.

The second joint raided was on Twenty-fourth street between Jefferson and Madison avenues, and it is alleged that a "skin game" was in progress there. This game is played with cards and is not unlike stud poker. Four negroes, John Tabb, J. A. Knight, Clifford Gray and John Jackson, were found in the place. They were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct. All of these men were bailed by Justice Christian and Clements.

The police are determined to break up the alleged gambling in Rocketts and the raids will continue.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, laryngitis, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A. hall, 227 Twenty-eighth street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Fromenson is a grand officer of the Federation of American Zionists, and he is making a tour of the country in the interest of the Zionist movement.

"The Present and the Future of the Jewish People" will be the speaker's subject, and the address promises to be both interesting and instructive.

SAYS SHE HAD NO MONEY.

Mrs. Baker's Father Offers Excuse for Her Failure to Return.

Mr. G. W. Burcher, who furnished a bond of $300 for the appearance of Mrs. Nannie B. Baker to answer to the charge of infanticide, has received a letter from the woman's father, in which it is stated that the woman did not return to this city for trial because she had no money with which to pay railroad fare. Mr. Baker says that his daughter intends to return as soon as she can raise the necessary money.

The father gives an explanation for the actions of Mrs. Baker's father-in-law, who has been keeping the police informed as to the woman's movements. Byrd says that he served on a jury some years ago which convicted Baker of killing an Indian, and that since that time Baker has been his bitter enemy.

Warrants for Mrs. Baker have been sent to several places in North Carolina, and it is probable that she will be rearrested within the next few days.

IN FISTIC ENCOUNTER.

Young Men Mixed in Lively Fashion, But Were Interrupted.

Melvin Morris, a young man living at 529 Thirty-second street, and Frank C. McGee, of 3805 Huntington avenue, engaged in a fistic encounter at Washington avenue and Twenty-ninth street, about 9:30 o'clock last night. A large crowd of people quickly gathered on the scene, but no effort was made to stop the encounter until Patrolman Latimer arrived and placed both of the young men under arrest. McGee apparently had all the better of the fray, blacking Morris' eye and bruising his face.

The prisoners were bailed by Justice T. J. Christian for their appearance in the police court tomorrow. They were charged with disorderly conduct.

HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

Judge Barham Does Not Seek the Circuit Court Bench.

Judge T. J. Barham, of the Corporation Court, who has just returned home after sitting in the Accomac county Circuit Court for Judge Blackstone, expressed surprise yesterday when he learned that his name had been mentioned in connection with a number of candidates for the vacancy which may be created by the removal of Judge Blackstone. The judge said he certainly was not a candidate, and had not authorized the use of his name.

The Corporation Court February term ended yesterday, and the March term begins tomorrow.

Mrs. Samuel Nieder (Miss Kate Elsomere Puller), assisted by Miss Pressey, Mrs. Penno Heath and son, Mr. Steve Johnson and Miss Tarter, will give a delightful entertainment at Chestnut Avenue Methodist Church on Tuesday, March 10, 8:15 p. m. Admission 25c. Children 15c.

THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FROM SALES

Disposition of Personal Property of Exposition Almost Complete—Valuable Fixtures.

Thirty-five thousand dollars has been realized from the sale of the personal property of the Jamestown Exposition Company. The first sales netted $17,000 and the two later sales about $18,000. The fund is being used in the administration of the receivership by order of Judge Waddell, of the United States District Court. The electrical effects are yet to be sold and they will add quite a sum to the fund.

When the land of the company is sold this general fund will be used to pay all lien claimants protected by the first mortgage given by the Exposition Company on its personal property.

It is expected that the electrical fixtures at the Exposition grounds will bring something like $50,000. This property will be sold privately, sealed bids now being received by the receivers.

JOSEPH CHARLES AUXILIARY.

Officers For Year Chosen—A Charity Ball.

At the annual meeting of the Joseph Charles Auxiliary to the old General hospital Friday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

President—Mr. Elbert Nexsen.
